Mr. Claude Jordan, of Washington, N. C. has accepted a position as salesman with Mr. Moses Weisel, on Water street. The Washington Gazette-Messenger speaks of Mr. Jordan in the following complimentary terms:

"To day is the tenth anniversary of Mr. Claude Jordan's connection with J. K. Hoyt as salesman. Ten years ago he went with the then firm of Hoyt & Rowe and when they dissolved Mr. Jordan cast his lot with Mr. Hoyt and has been in his employ ever since. No salesman in the city enjoys a larger circle of friends or held in higher esteem. Mr. Jordan, several years ago, was presented with a gold headed cane as the most popular clerk here. We offer heartiest congratulations and bespeak for him a more brilliant future, both for himself and employer."
